BPS NEWSLETTER

Parents and Carers,

We've had an action packed two weeks since we came back this half term. The temperature has dropped considerably so please ensure your child has their coat as well as their jumper/ cardigan. On Monday 16th November, it is Odd Sock Day so children can come with odd socks on. This is for anti bullying week. This half term we also still have Parents' Evening on Wednesday 25th November and Thursday 26th November. Please book an appointment using your MCAS account. We also have Roots to Food who cook with all of the children in school at the beginning of December as well as all our Christmas performances to look forward to. The countdown to Christmas has begun!

Please remember if you have any concerns, your child's teacher is the first point of contact. However, myself, Mr B and Mrs Warriner are more than happy to talk or meet with you too.

Have a lovely weekend!!!

Mrs Pask- 13.11.26

1. REMEMBRANCE

This year Hedley from the Royal British Legion delivered an assembly to the school. Some of our pupils went to the Market Place on Remembrance Day to lay our school wreath. The rest of the school held a two minute silence on the playground and Mr Longthorne kindly played Last Post for us all.

2 LOST PROPERTY

Please can you check your child's jumpers, cardigans and coats are labelled with their name. Our lost property box is full already and there are some brand new items in there too.

3

KESTREL CLASS (EYFS)

In reception, their topic is People who help us and they have been lucky enough to have a parent who is a nurse in to talk about how she cares for others. The children loved it!

4

MERLIN CLASS(YEAR 1)

Year 1 have been looking at the Text Whatever Next by Jill Murphy. They have written some amazing sentences and made great progress already in Year 1.
